" . . . Behold, I have set before thee a door opened, which none can shut. . . ."
(Revelation 3:8)

*If by chance you were to pass A door ajar and Catch a glimpse of what's inside,
Your eyes Would snatch a Fleeting pose.
Perhaps with wonder you Might pause to see a little more. . . .*

*The Savior bids, "Behold . . . an open door." Behold? Of course,
An invitation to the holy place —
The Savior's heart To dwell and Know the meaning Of abandonment . . .
Loving companionship with Him.
The door is opened for Us to see and Be fully satisfied with Him And know somehow in Some small measure we Satisfy Him.*

*And then with wonder, we Behold His Will —
An opening door —
A path to follow to new.
Paths, each, new Avenues of opportunity
He has given us.
Those dreams — dim visions Brighten with each step Of faith strengthened By His hand. He leads And we follow in service Ever expectant, Ever wondering
That the Divine is pleased To include humanity In His purpose.*

*It is ours only to follow
As did Peter.
It is His to provide And lead.
"As it is written,
Eye hath not seen,
Nor ear heard, Neither have entered into The heart of man,
The things which God Hath prepared For them that Love Him."*

 I don't even know why I'm here . . .
 right now it seems like one gigantic treadmill — going faster, and faster, never stopping to rest . . . and yet never really getting anywhere*

*saturday . . . it's all so peaceful so very beautiful sunshine, shadows, the mockingbird on the chapel, wind caressing the trees and it's warmer.
 yesterday was SO cold . . .
 My Father, I want You* *to control my life; why am I so discouraged one moment, so happy the next? and still You love me!

 I don't understand it; Your love — it's so sweet I love you, my Lord*

"by this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. . . ."

"love one another; as I have loved you"

"if ye love Me, keep my commandments"

I am your disciple, Father, and I do love you.

*I can take the studies, and the profs, and parallel reading, even. If only my roommate . . . Lord, he doesn't even try to be kind; he doesn't share the responsibility in the room. How can you expect me to be 100% behind him?
How can I love someone who does NOT care about anyone? . . . except himself . . .
Really, Lord — I have tried — hard People talk about victory over problems I don't think they know what they're talking about; it's just not as easy as they say it is. . . .*

*it is impossible,

 A man who can laugh,
 But whose heart is tender.
 One in whom we can confide, Yet one
 Who will be objective.
 One
 Whose example we can follow,
 As we follow Christ.
 Provoking us to love God With all our being,
 And to love our fellow man.
 We dedicate this 1970 FINIAL
 To you, Mr. J. Robertson McQuilkin.*

President

Rev. J. Robertson McQuilkin, President

Dear Class of '70:

Why haven't you revolted?

Uptight? Passive-dependent? Or just plain square?

But you did revolt. You revolted against the establishment. Maybe before you came. Maybe after you got here....

You revolted -- or you would hardly be here today. The "in" thing is to sign a life contract with the ruling authorities of this world, to settle for the establishment's value system. But you broke free.

I suppose that's why you chose C.B.C., training center for revolutionary activity. Oh, it hasn't been exactly a guerrilla camp. But it hasn't been all fun and frolic either. It's been ...well...it's been great. You've been great! And I don't think you're going to flame out at 35.

I salute the Class of 1970 -- God's revolutionaries in an age bound up tight by the Enemy.

Yours to set men truly free -- in Christ,

J. Robertson McQuilkin

GOD'S HALL OF FAME

*Your name may not appear down here In this world's Hall of Fame,
In fact, you may be so unknown
That no one knows your name;
The oscars and the praise of men May never come your way, But don't forget God has rewards That He'll hand out someday.*

*This Hall of Fame is only good As long as time shall be;
But keep in mind, God's Hall of Fame
Is for eternity;
To have your name inscribed up there Is greater more by far Than all the fame and all the praise Of ev'ry man-made star.*

*This crowd on earth they soon forget When you're not at the top, They'll cheer like mad until you fall
And then their praise will stop;
Not God, He never does forget,
And in His Hall of Fame,
By just believing on His Son, Forever — there's your name.*

*I tell you, friend, I wouldn't trade My name, however small, That's written there beyond the stars
In that celestial Hall,
For all the famous names on earth,
Or glory that they share;
I'd rather be an unknown here,
And have my name up there.*

Alumni

Alumni Association officers: Rhett Sanders — Executive Secretary, Carey Steele — President, and Mrs. Verna Taylor discuss the Association with seniors, who will be inducted upon graduation in June.

Mr. Larry Bivins '66 and family are active alumni, serving the Lord at the Columbia Christian School.

Rev. Carey Steele '46, president of the Alumni Association, has led many of its members to join in prayer partnership with the Bible College. Graduates and former students of CBC keep in touch with each other and with the college through this organization.

Association

The newest addition to our campus is the flag pole in front of McQuilkin Hall — a much appreciated donation of the Charlotte Area Alumni.

*“withal praying for us also, that God may open unto us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ”
